BASIC COUNTRY SURVEY OF THE USSR

4-27 November 1963

8:30-12:30 Daily

The Basic Country Survey of the USSR is a course for Agency employees who require a comprehensive knowledge of the Soviet Union. Its major emphasis is on current conditions in the USSR (including doctrine, Party and Government, the economy, the social system, and the military) and Soviet foreign policy. Those factors of the Tsarist period leading to the Revolution and influencing Soviet development are also included.

Classes in the November BCS--USSR will meet every morning for the four weeks in Room 1D-0409 Headquarters. Registration closes Thursday, 31 October. For further information call [REDACTED], SIC, extension 7371.
